

Hi everyone!

Gracie and I have been talking a lot lately about giving back to others and how she as a little girl can do her part. She has decided that she would like to join the Locks of L♥ve family and donate 10 inches of her hair (now she just has to grow it). We decided to share the news with the Holy Trinity families in hope that maybe others might want to join her. It's pretty simple, just grow the hair and cut it off in a ponytail to be sent to Locks of L♥ve. Their hair will grow back and in the meantime that ponytail helps make a wig for a child who has no hair of their own. It is estimated that 80% of all donations come from children who wish to help other children; maybe the Holy Trinity kids can help make that percentage a little bit higher.

Here is the link that will tell you all the details:

Please just talk about this with your child and see what they say...I think you may be surprised by how willing they will be to help.

Thank you!
